HULI BENCH AND STOOL

Design Federica Biasi

Federica Biasi consolida la collaborazione con Frigerio con nuove proposte e ampliamenti di gamma. A fronte del successo riscosso dalla lounge chair, si uniscono alla famiglia di complementi Huli lo sgabello e la panca che con le loro strutture curve si propongono come ampliamento di collezione, riprendendone l'intreccio caratteristico. La raffinata panca Huli racconta la passione per la qualità e il dettaglio che accomuna Frigerio e Federica Biasi. La struttura è proposta in legno massello e un intreccio in corda per una lavorazione tradizionale del prodotto dal gusto marcatamente contemporaneo.

Federica Biasi consolidates her collaboration with Frigerio with new proposals and range extentions. Following the success of the lounge chair, a stool and a bench join the Huli family of complements and with their curved structures, they are proposed as an extension of the collection echoing its characteristics weave. The refined Huli bench expresses the passion for quality and detail shared by Frigerio and Federica Biasi. The structure is made in solid wood and the particular braid rope highlights a strong contemporary taste.
